Did You Know?

It is the responsibility of the thrower to confirm their score PRIOR to removing their darts from the board? (Rule #38). Once a single dart is removed, the score will stand, even if it is later deemed incorrect. When two players must chalk their own game, it is customary to wait a moment to allow your opponent time to confirm what you threw and the score you wrote down. When I play in tournaments, I announce my score, out loud, as I'm walking to the board. That gives my opponent a bit longer to confirm/deny my score. This is not required, but merely etiquette. If a dart breaks the wire and is touching two or more scoring sections, the score shall be the HIGHEST value (Rule #37). The thrower does not get to choose which score they want.

If you make a mistake writing down a number PLEASE don't try to over-write the number. Draw a line thru the incorrect number and write the correct number down next to it. Many times I have a hard time trying to figure out what the number really is if you overwrite it. Thanks!

If you have an Email address but are not being notified each week when the stats are uploaded to our Web Site drop me a note at my Email address below and I will gladly add your name to my list. I keep trying to get everybody's Email address for the N.O.D.A. Names/Addresses file.
